The Joy of Begging to Belong to The Lord Jesus
Zacharias Tane Fomum 2020-06-16 This book is the expression of the life of a man who is totally abandoned to God - the testimony of an unspeakable and indispensable consecration of his all to God. Through it, Z .T. Fomum testifies to the undeserved love of God towards him and to the satisfaction and joy found in Him. Having seen the undeserved privilege of serving God, he lays out the rules of life which he previously imposed on himself in his walk with God as he received them from the Lord. He made a commitment to the Lord through vows which he expressed and manifested in a life of separation from the common in order to conquer the world for Christ. Here he expresses his joy in serving the Lord with his all and with his best. Read this book and you will realise the tremendous grace that there is in setting oneself apart for divine office.

while simultaneously giving it away. The world is about to be radically reshaped...one word at a time. What is loneliness but an unanswered cry for love? Lift Up the Defeated What is a wounded soul but one aching for hope? Redirect a Life You wield the power to heal the hurting. You hold the words to affirm the doubting. Praise for The Joy of Encouragement "If you need a fresh start, a new beginning, a renewed hope, then this is the book for you." —Joseph Aldrich, former president, Multnomah Bible College "Do any two elements of life go together more naturally than hope and encouragement? David Jeremiah offers both in The Joy of Encouragement. Highly recommended." —Bruce Wilkinson, bestselling author "A compelling call for us to infect our despairing and discouraged world with hope and encouragement. This is a strategic book for those of us who want to be used as helpers and healers on behalf of Christ." —Joseph Stowell, senior teaching pastor, Harvest Bible Chapel and seventh president, Moody Bible Institute Rejoice in the Lord Always! Godsword Onu 2015-04-01 Apostle Paul wrote: "Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!" (Phil. 4:4). Apostle Paul was greatly persecuted in the course of his ministry; and someone may not expect him to make such a statement. It is very important to God that His children rejoice always in Him. Think about it! The Lord, through Paul, stressed its importance by repeating it. The devil will want us to be stressed by different kinds of things, so that he can steal our joy away from us. Have you allowed the devil to steal your joy? How did you allow him to steal it? Is it through sin and indulgence? Is it through the pursuit of this world's cares? Is it through worries, doubt, depression, or sorrow? The remembrance that we have the host of Heaven on our side should keep us cheered up. God the Father is for us; Jesus Christ is with us; the Holy Spirit is in us and upon us; the Word of God is our defensive and offensive armour; and the angels of God minister for us. We should never allow anything to steal our joy from us.

2017-05-04 The devil is working intelligently and diligently with near hundred percent precision, on how to steal, kill, or destroy your joy. He is determined to use anyone or anything available that he can. The devil wants you to have everything that is opposite of joy, such as sorrow, shame, depression, and disgrace to name a few. It is your responsibility with God's help to defend and secure your joy against the devil and his agents with everything you've got. Money cannot buy joy. You don't have to be poor or wealthy, old or young, and big or small to have true joy. Though God is the source of true joy, you can promote or limit your joy. You can control what you do, not what others do, but you have the power to control how you accept/react/respond to what others do. Joy works wonders, it is the soul's medicine, and gives life to your bones. The bible says in Nehemiah 8: 10c, that "The joy of the Lord is your strength." You can live a life full of joy, because you can do all things through Christ who strengthens you. This book will show you the enemies of joy, how to defeat them, and how to defend/secure your joy. If you don't defend your joy, nobody will do it for you! No matter what you are going through today, there is hope. Trust God, let Him wipe away your tears and help you reap in joy per Psalm 126: 5, "Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy." If you don't want sorrow, shame, depression, and disgrace to rule your life, you must fight and overcome the enemies of joy without compromise, because your life depends on it. You and God forms the undefeatable team against all the enemies of your joy. Talk is cheap, but action is power! You can do this, I believe you can, yes you can!

Join him as he unveils the awesome greatness of God—His incredible holiness, deep wisdom, and especially His inspiring love. You'll gain a deeper understanding of who God is that will draw you into a truly biblical, and surprisingly delightful, fear of God—a fear that includes your own genuine, heartfelt delight in God. Turn Around and See the Lord Joy Vassal 2009-03 The book Turn Around and See the Lord takes inspiration from the experience that Mary Magdalene had with Christ Jesus and His angels at the Lord's sepulchre. The author relates Mary's human frailties to the emotional discomfort, stress, poverty, famine, social mishaps and political servitude that may come upon us. These hardships, she believes, are inflicted upon some believers because of their wickedness, stubbornness, unbelief and lack of simple trust in Jehovah God. She recommends that there is a need for a change or repentance. The author has put together more than twenty renowned biblical characters and her personal-life testimony to address some of the challenges our generation is facing with idol worship and adulterous and obnoxious practices. Rev. Joy Vassal was born in Allison, Manchester-Jamaica West Indies. While she was living in Jamaica she studied at Beaumont College and graduated from Caledonia Educational College Jamaica. When she came to Toronto, Canada, she continued her education, where she matriculated in the Ministerial Affirmation and the Ministerial Internship Programs offered by the Church of God and Lee College (now Lee University) in Cleveland, Tennessee. She obtained an Addiction Social Worker's Diploma at Everest College (formerly CDI College). She is currently attending Tyndale University and Seminary. Joy is a devoted member of the West Toronto New Testament Church of God, where she serves as Missions Representative. Joy is a prolific playwright. Her playwriting skills were exemplified in The Old Man and the New Man drama production that she wrote and produced. It was an educative and insightful episode, which was developed for television in 1999. She also produced two other plays, Gloria Suffering and The King Is Coming. Adding to her writing schedule, she writes for Miles magazine, Canada's first Christian magazine covering current events, issues and testimonials worldwide.

Lord, Look Inside My Heart Laurie Aker

2017-03-08 Sometimes we are scared to look within. This book is designed to help you with the very sensitive task of tending to your heart. Laurie gently walks us through this engaging, interactive process with the Lord to completely transform our hearts. After all, we might not like what we find there. We might have the perfect picture of ourselves that we have manufactured in our minds eye shattered by the realization that we still have weeds of sin deeply entwined in certain furrows of our heart. And then would begin the difficult task of digging down and pulling up these roots from some very delicate places. Perhaps, we may think, it is easier to be ignorant and let these things go. But if we let them go, the weeds will continue to grow, and the kind of fruit they bear will hinder our walk with the Lord. If we desire to bear the fruit of righteousness in our hearts, we must with the Lord's help of course explore these places, uproot these sins, and plant seeds of righteousness instead.

Trading My Sorrows Jerry Woodbridge & Vicki

Rudicel 2010-11-15 There is a moment in each widow or widower's life where a decision must be made. The choice is whether to trade her/his unexpected sorrows for the life of the past or embrace the future. "Yes, Lord!" This book offers multiple perspectives on widowhood. It is a collaborative effort that began with a small group of young widows that met for fellowship and encouragement over Thursday lunches. Our conversations ranged from how to cope with our grief to dealing with our own realities as single parents and unexpected widows. Jerry began to keep a journal, which led her and Vickie to writing devotionals from a widow's perspective. This project expanded as awareness arose of other widow and widowers who were open to sharing their stories of going through the mourning process. Healing began when we traded our stories with each other and found the joy of the Lord. "Journals can help us remember the details of moments that framed our lives, and sometimes to help others with theirs. Jerry Woodbridge opens her life's pages and affords us an articulate glimpse of hope for whatever comes our way." Jerry Pattengale, Executive Director of National Conversations, Assistant Provost, IWU "An inspiring memoir of a widow's journey through grief and how her strong christian faith guided her to find peace and strength in her sorrow." JoAnne Funch, Heartache To Healing "Life can make us bitter or better. The writers of Trading My Sorrows have exchanged their grief for the Savior's grace. In these pages, you too will find hope and help. Romans 8:28 is fleshed out in the lives of these fellow travelers and strugglers. Be encouraged to join them on the road to healing and a better life of usefulness." Chaplain John Wrightsman, Indiana Wesleyan University "As a young widow myself, I am so excited about this book, especially as it affirms that we have a choice to continue dwelling in the pain or turning toward healing and living again. What Jerry has done with this book is refreshing and inspiring, offering hope to fellow widows as they experience their own journey from pain to renewal of living with loss and beyond." Michelle E. Vásquez, MS, LPC True Love Relationship Coaching

Choosing Joy Dan Lord 2012-11-15 What is joy? Ask ten different people and you'll get ten different answers. Yet if you asked: a man who grew up fatherless and destitute in the slums of Atlanta a young widow who decided to bring a neglected garden back to life in spite of agonizing physical pain and a deeply wounded spirit or author Dan Lord himself, ex-frontman for a popular indie rock band each would point to the one source of their joy: Jesus. They made the choice for joy, against all odds, and so can you, though the obstacles might seem insurmountable. Worry and anxiety, pain and suffering, the daily grind -- all these and more can block your path. When faced with such challenges, is it possible to get past the barriers, let go, and experience God's joy? When you look around, you might wonder -- although joy is a fruit of the Spirit, it doesn't seem to be hanging visibly from many Christian boughs. Choosing Joy aims to change that -- and change your life in the process -- as it helps you discover the key to this most attractive but seemingly elusive gift. Choosing Joy will help you overcome the obstacles and focus your heart, mind and strength on God so that you can receive the happiness and peace that the world cannot give.

The Joy of the Lord is My Strength Michael Soppeland 2018-04-09
Music has been called the universal language. I have found very few people who do not like some genres of it. It touches all of us. The appeal of music is that the human person is affected by the ideas it promotes and the emotions it evokes. Words like rhythm, melody, harmony, and color are all included in the art of music. I have used music to introduce each chapter as I write my thoughts about life and all that it means. This book is my own description of peace, love, hope, and joy. As a Christian, I am influenced by God, Scripture, and my hope that all people would come to love and know God through the person of his son, Jesus, the Christ. When the Israelites were bringing the Ark of the Covenant into Jerusalem, "King David commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their brethren as the singers who should play loudly on musical instruments, on harps and lyres and cymbals, to raise sounds of joy" (1 Chronicles 15:16 RSV). And through the challenges of life, that is why I claim Nehemiah 8:10 as the title of this work: The Joy of the Lord Is My Strength.

These 25 brief devotional readings from John Piper begin on December 1 and carry us to Christmas Day. You can still be joyful in a time of the afflictions and trials that we experience day after day. By the special grace of God, this book was written with you in mind. This book also challenges you to take a stand for the Word of God and be joyful even in the midst of your immediate challenges, for Jesus walks and talks with you in it. This is a must-read book!
