Kozub 2001 To make sure you're asking the right questions about sales and use taxes, to make sure you've got the right answers, turn to the Sales and Use Tax Answer Book fast. The authors of the Sales and Use Tax Answer Book are master practitioners, with more than 60 years' experience among them. In the Answer Book they have identified the critical tax issues, the important compliance procedures, the common problems -- and the common mistakes. In an easy-to-use question-and-answer format they explain how to handle sales-and-use-tax issues correctly and confidently. From art and antiques to fuels and financial institutions to medicine, phone cards and e-commerce -- you'll find clear, concise explanations of the applicable sales and use tax. Each answer gives special attention to variations in the law, state by state. But the Answer Book is not merely a listing of statutory language, rules and regulations. It is a practice tool. With each statement of law, you'll find a plain-English explanation of how the law has interpreted and applied by the courts and by state agencies.
