Praying the Stations of the Cross with St. Josemaria Escriva Josemaria Escriva 2021-02-09 "My Lord and my God, under the loving eyes of our Mother, we are making ready to accompany you along this path of sorrow, which was the price for our redemption." Praying the Stations of the Cross with St. Josemaria Escriva is an invitation and guide to praying and contemplating the traditional fourteen stations following the way of Jesus Christ's passion and death. Like the original, this adaptation of St. Josemaria's beloved devotion, The Way of Cross, seeks to help people to pray and, with God's grace, to grow in a spirit of reparation and of gratitude to Our Lord, who has rescued us at the cost of his blood. St. Josemaria's scriptural commentaries, fruit of his personal prayer, help us to enter into and become one more in each scene, so that as we strive to accompany Jesus more intimately and lovingly, we come to understand the redemptive meaning of his suffering and our own. *Includes Audio Praying the Stations of the Cross Katherine Johnson 2011-08-01 COMPLETELY REDESIGNED AND UPDATED! The Stations of the Cross is a beloved devotion of the Church, especially during Lent. As early as the 4th century, Christians pilgrims to the Holy Land would walk the route that our Lord walked as He made his way to Golgotha for our salvation. Later, when Jerusalem was captured and it became too dangerous to make this pilgrimage, Christians replicated the sites back home in Europe, and there developed the "Stations of the Cross" devotion also known as "Via Dolorosa." Today we observe 14 stations, with the Resurrection an optional 15th. Meditating on the passion of Christ draws us closer to him and helps us to receive his love in our hearts. As we take time to reflect on each of the Stations of the Cross, our prayer life is deepened and our subsequent experiences of prayer take on new meaning. As you walk with Jesus toward Calvary, may God give you insight into his sacrificial love for us through Jesus, our Lord. Praying the Stations of the Cross prayer journal is designed to be used during Lent or at any time for meditation upon the Stations of the Cross. It encourages anyone who desires to grow in prayer to take each Station of the Cross and pray using lectio divina. Scripture passages for each station as well as inspirational quotations from Cardinal John Henry Newman are included, along with instructions on the four stages of lectio divina. Our goal in this kind of prayer is to encounter our Lord as he speaks to our hearts and transforms our lives by the power of the Holy Spirit.

For you to control your physical environment, you have to win your Spiritual Warfare. If you want to enjoy good health, prosper in the area of marriage, prosper financially, or receive any desire of yours, you must win your Spiritual Warfare. Unfortunately, very many people neither know what Spiritual Warfare really means nor how to wage the war. Some even call it 'warfare prayers'. Though prayer is very important, it has nothing to do with Spiritual Warfare. This explains why many pray so much and still experience lack. If Spiritual Warfare is not about prayers, what then does it mean? This book contains a shocking revelation of the actual meaning of Spiritual Warfare and how to wage the war successfully. Pastor Chris Ojigbani is the Senior Pastor of Covenant Singles and Married Ministries. Stations of the Light Mary Ford-Grabowsky 2007-12-18 This is the first book to introduce the fourteen joyful and highly symbolic events that make up the Via Lucis, the Christian Way of Light, an ancient spiritual tradition celebrating the post-Resurrection life of Christ on Earth. The Stations of the Light, with its “good news” of healing and salvation, is becoming an increasingly popular devotion throughout the United States and the world, and was recognized by the Vatican in its Jubilee 2000 campaign.

While Christians of all denominations are familiar with the Stations of the Cross, few know how to celebrate the Stations of the Light, a practice that came into being through inspiration from ancient Roman sources. Stations of the Light is a clear and inspiring guide to making this ancient ritual part of contemporary Christian life. The stations mark the fourteen sacred events in the post-Easter story, from “Jesus Rises from the Dead” to “Pentecost: The Risen Lord Sends the Holy Spirit.” For each one, Mary Ford-Grabowsky presents a variety of spiritual practices that invite readers to form their own realistic and sacred image of the event. Beginning with relaxation and releasing the imagination, these exercises are designed to help convey the story and foster inspiration, and include ancient and contemporary meditations, reflections, and prayers; as well as journal writing, artwork, music, and mantras.

Understanding the Spirit World R. W. White 2009-11 R.W. Founded in 1984 in a small storefront building, World Evangelism Outreach Church reaches around the earth evangelizing, planting churches, encouraging Pastors and church leaders. RW and Elaine White travel as ambassadors to the nations encouraging and helping the saints. They have two daughters Tessie and Jenny Jo; two granddaughters Racheal and Josie, and one son-in-law Pastor Ben Barton. Who lives inside the believer? Is it Jesus, the Father, the Holy Ghost, or the Holy Spirit? Is He a person and if so how does a person live in each Christian all around the world at the same time. What happens when saints pray? How does God hear our prayers? How does He answer our prayers? What state of being are the departed saints in when they die? What will be the role of the church after this life is over? These and many other questions are discussed in this book and answered for your understanding from Zachariah chapter four.

The New Stations of the Cross Megan McKenna 2007-12-18 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross, reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II. A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years, the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death, crucified, and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem. In the past, the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion, but not mentioned in the Gospels. Over the past eight years, however, Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations, removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion. The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross. Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother; this is a story of an execution. The new stations deal directly with the pain, suffering, betrayal, and injustice to which Jesus was subjected. In explaining his reasons for revising the stations, the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship. In this helpful, authoritative guide, Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday. She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present-day Catholics and Episcopalians.

The Way of the Cross Inos Biffi 1997 These books combine clear text with lavish, colorful pictures to help readers understand the foundations of the Catholic faith.

Biblical Keys to Spiritual Leadership Terry Redmon 2007-07 The book was written to teach biblically-based leadership skills to leaders that have been called and chosen in their church to reclaim America's Christian heritage. This book is also applicable to all leadership positions in general. The book's purpose is to develop spiritual leaders for use in God's kingdom. The first part of the book teaches the biblical skills a leader must possess in order to develop the Christian walk, commune, fellowship, and to hear God speak. God is the true leader. After God speaks, the leader executes God's battle plan. The following chapters of the book discuss the sacrifices a leader must endure and the price to be paid in the leadership role. This allows the prospective leader to count the cost of leadership before making the final decision to follow God's plan. The remainder of the book teaches the biblical principles of spiritual leadership. This book emphasizes the fact that the spiritual leader must operate in revelation knowledge. Terry Redmon is a retired electrical engineer who is experienced in technical writing. He graduated from a two-year Bible school. He is co-founder of a ministry to reclaim America's Christian heritage. He has been intensely involved in getting the Bible curriculum back into the public school systems. He and his wife were the "salt and light," recipients at the Reclaiming America for Christ Conference in 2003. The author has taught a number of workshops on reclaiming America's Christian heritage.
