A Walden Two Experiment Kathleen Kinkade

1973 From the Back Cover: Twin Oaks, perhaps America's most famous and successful commune, was founded in rural Virginia in 1967 by Kathleen Kinkade and several other people, all of whom were influenced by B.F. Skinner's Walden Two. Eschewing primitivism for its own sake, embracing technology instead of rejecting it, these creators of Twin Oaks set out to build a community not only structured but also experimental in which the goal was the "good life". Kathleen Kinkade describes in great detail the story of the hard work put in by people who wanted to live together in as much harmony as possible.

Country Commune Cooking Lucy Horton

2019-11-22 A fascinating culinary odyssey through the kitchens of America's flourishing country communes, here is an original and vastly entertaining cookbook-plus-"an organic cookbook with lapses"that combines more than 150 superb and distinctly different recipes with a wealth of communal lore encompassing cameo sketches of hip cooks from Vermont to California and informal, informative raps on everything from growing and preserving your own vegetables to hosting a communal feast.Gathered from forty-three communes in twelve states and Canada and exotically named for their exuberant young inventors or the spirit in which they were created (Total Loss Spinach Blintzes, T.A.'s Potato Volcano, Omelet Outrageous), the recipes range from variations on familiar American staples like pizza and cheeseburgers and traditional ethnic concoctions to wholly unique creations that reflect the astonishing variety of tastes and dietary theories that Lucy Horton discovered on her year-long quest through the often primitive but always prodigiously productive kitchens of country communes. She discovered, too, that group cooking (not group sex) is the central fact and preoccupation of communal life. A vital and formative part of Consciousness III is Food Consciousness, and it is from the awakening palates and enthusiastic experiments with organic foods - wholesome natural grains, a cornucopia of lovingly tended fruits and vegetables, exotic herbs and aromatic spices - of young people cooking on wood-burning stoves that Lucy has gleaned a treasury of recipes as innovative as they are delicious. Note: This is a 2019 reprint of the original 1972 edition with an updated Afterword by both the author and illustrator.
