God's Plan Is Not an Obstacle Course Robert Shipman 2014-04-12 This book is about teaching Leadership and Saints to grow churches. I spent years in the business world training leaders and growing business and church. So this book covers the relationship of church leadership and congregation as one team in unity. It hits home with knowing your position and the affects you have on the entire body. They must think as a team, know their position as vital, and the long term goal the body is seeking to reach, known as the vision of the church. Like any football, baseball or basketball team it requires a team effort, continual practice, meetings and training. Pastors must understand they are players as well as the coach. They are not the owners of the team; they are part of the team. Every leadership position and congregation in the pews must be actively involved as team members. Believing in God and yourself is a vitally important part of true Christian Church. Never be ashamed of what you are trying to do for the kingdom of God, regardless of how it appears. Whatever your position, leadership or a Saint in training, never use the world as your goal to please or look good. Everything we do for Jesus, He will honor and help us and direct us. If we get off base a little He will correct our direction. Just keep in mind that whatever your position is, it is a growth-oriented ministry and Jesus will work beside you through any changes required. If any team, football, baseball, track team or Church team is not consistent and stable then discouragement is expected and may bring the team down (Proverbs 29:18). No sports team or business, and especially the local church team should ever enter into the league without a plan with a goal and lots of training. Every great person in the Bible has a goal so why would we think that the modern church doesn't need to be trained and ready for warfare. That is the reason for getting the entire congregation involved with frequent encouragement that will keep them active and others wanting to get active. In every church there is either a spirit of witness or a lack of the spirit of witness. You can always tell which is which by looking at the number of visitors on Sunday's. It is possible for any church to change their negative lack of witnessing to a very positive witnessing church, but not overnight. That is what book teaches, how to grow your church.

Gladhearted Disciples Chris Folmsbee 2015-05-19 Gladhearted Disciples: Equipping Your Congregation with Generous and Enduring Faith addresses a critical need for church leaders and pastors: How can we guide people to live like Jesus and to draw others into that life? This is a book to study and with your leaders and teams. Gladhearted Disciples starts with an indisputable yet often ignored reality: In a post-modern, post-Christian world, we can no longer attract people by convincing them of our "truth." We must instead embody the Gospel in such clear and compelling ways that they will be attracted to our way of life. This is the true measure of discipleship. Folmsbee provides a template for the spiritual formation of hopeful, grace-filled, kingdom-focused disciples who represent God's love in the world. Pastors, Christian educators, and small-group leaders will find here an inspiring new perspective to inspire and support their work.--Ann Michel, Associate Director, Lewis Center for Church Leadership I recommend this book for faith communities and all who yearn for a new way of understanding our sacred calling as followers of Jesus.--DJ del Rosario, Sr. Pastor, Bothell UMC, Bothell, WA If you are seeking to guide others in following Jesus into the mission field that exists right outside your front door, read this book. You'll encounter vivid stories and a theologically grounded, practical, and missional approach to discipleship in a post-Christian world. --Sara B. Thomas, Chief Strategist for Vital Congregations, Discipleship Ministries, The United Methodist Church Gladhearted Disciples takes a radically different and welcome approach to evangelism and discipleship. It is a winsome and accessible book with two audaciously important messages. First, Christian discipleship is grounded in grace, characterized by humility, upwardly focused in gratitude, and outwardly-turned in compassion. Second, Christian communities should be marked by the same. Every church would do well to heed this prophetic yet hopeful message. --Robert K. Martin, Dean and Professor of Christian Formation and Leadership, Wesley Theological Seminary If you seek a fresh way to understand and share our faith—a way that makes sense in our current reality, I invite you to delve into this book. May you be newly inspired! --Dottie Escobedo-Frank, author of The Jesus Insurgency with Rudy Rasmus, from Abingdon Press Kingdom Building Realising Vision and Developing Leaders Victory 365 Fellowship of Christian Athletes 2016-10-18 365-Day Devotional Encourages Athletes and Coaches to Take a Time-Out to Center on Their Relationship with God Even as they strive for victory on the field or on the court, athletes and coaches can make strides toward richer spiritual lives. Growing in faith helps athletes and coaches grow as positive influences on the teammates, coaches, opponents, and parents around them. This 365-day devotional encourages athletes and coaches to take a time-out to rethink and re-center on their faith. Each entry opens with an inspirational thought and a related Scripture. A reflection question at the end of each entry helps the reader apply the lesson to his or her life as both a believer and a participant in the competitive arena.

Next Level Leadership Training: Volume One Rick Johnston 2015-04-29 Every local church requires leaders. Many believers are given responsibility to lead but fail to sustain their leadership. Developing the people who lead is essential to building strong churches and demonstrating the kingdom message to those who do not know Christ. The nonpublic lifestyle of a leader is what vitally supports the public expression of his or her grace. Jesus said, "Follow me ... and I will make ... you fishers of men." Those three simple phrases are the essence of Rick Johnston's Next Level Leadership Training. Johnston provides a syllabus for training such leaders. Bible-saturated lessons are the foundation of teaching. Classroom interaction tips, external resource suggestions, and life-implementation steps, given at the end of each lesson, provide the opportunity to increase in grace. Theological foundations, relationship-building assignments, and miracle demonstrations-defined in this text-provide a wide-ranging training course for every local church. N

Finding Our Way Jeff Lockyer 2021-09-15 What if the way the Church is "doing church" is the very reason the world is seeing less of Jesus in it every day? Beginning with the biblical basics, Jeff Lockyer walks readers through the underlying theology and practical application of how Southridge Community Church has approached ministry for nearly a quarter century. While providing a fresh approach to ministry, the book stimulates how to think--not what to think. It's written by a local church practitioner for local church practitioners. By providing clarity to the confused, it helps church leaders find their way. By providing practical examples delivered uniquely in multiple church contexts, it supports leaders in finding their own way. And, most of all, by re-framing the operation of the church around fostering full devotion instead of facilitating consumerism, it enables leaders of local churches to reclaim the lifestyle of Jesus among its people. It supports churches and leaders to find their Way--the Way of Jesus.

A God Centered Church Henry T. Blackaby 2007

The Kingdom of God in You Bill Winston 2010-05-04
Nationally known pastor, Bill Winston brings this powerful message of God's provision, healing, and more that is already resident in the believer and available to those who will seek God's direction. If the Kingdom of God is in us, why aren't we living lives of greatness in our world? Bill Winston recognizes that there are two kingdoms at work in this world, and tragically, even within the church, the majority of people are still living under the destructive lies and patterns of Satan's rule. They don't have the power and provisions of God - wisdom, understanding, peace, joy, health, abundant material provision, life-changing ministry, and so much more - because they simply have not recognized the kingdom in them. The promises of God rarely come from some outside sovereign work of God, but from the kingdom already inside. The pastor of one of America's fastest growing churches, Winston helps believers to start walking their faith out in miraculous ways. Why? We have a power within us that is supernatural and flies in the face of the world's arrogant - but ultimately inadequate

- self-reliance on human understanding and effort. With the faith of a child, even as small as a mustard seed, we unleash God's provision and power in our lives not by focusing on what we want, but by asking what the King of the Kingdom, God Almighty, wants us to accomplish. We quickly discover that our "grand dreams" and aspirations are miniscule in light of the greatness He has in store for us to do. This book is not for Christians who are complacent and desire the status quo. This is a soul-changing book that will turn the timid into the bold, and result in miracles that will build God's Kingdom right here and right now.

Prayer Revolution John Smed 2020-05-05
Are you praying constricted prayers or disruptive ones? Most prayers are constricted ones. They're prayers that only focus on one part of the Lord's Prayer: "give us our daily bread." They're usually focused on self and envision God as a heavenly caretaker. Disruptive prayers, on the other hand, are powerful, uncommon, and deeply biblical. They focus on God rather than self, seek to advance the kingdom, and submit all things to God. They are also prayed with a profound belief that prayer actually accomplishes something. When we pray disruptive prayers, that's when the revolution begins. This book shows you how to equip leaders, fuel kingdom movements, and do real damage to the powers of darkness in the here and now. But most of all, discover how your own heart will be transformed as you begin to see how much bigger prayer, and God, is than you ever thought possible.

The Word of God Will Work for You Above All Things Roger R. Hagwood 2004-07
The Word of God Will Work for You Above All Things because God's Word has creative power. This power will comfort believers, regardless of their tests and trials in this world. God's Word will also present believers with options. It will help them discover alternative solutions to their problems. The primary focus of this book is using the Word of God daily. Focus is also given to consistent prayer by using the Word of God above all things. Prayer and the Word mixed with faith will get results. God's Word mixed with prayer will strengthen believers internally and enhance their relationship with God. Also, The Word of God Will Work for You Above All Things teaches that practical application must become a way of life for believers to accomplish their godly ideals.

Reflective Leadership Jeff Perkins 2023-03-11 The ideal job! What I've always been looking for! The CEO of the most exciting, profitable Company that I have ever known wants me to work for Him and has hired me to fulfill an important leadership role. He has agreed to pay me very, very well to accomplish the responsibilities related to my new role; as a matter of fact; they have made me a partner in the company. You have been given those specific responsibilities; understand how you are to consistently conduct yourself and have a CEO you really appreciate and admire for his leadership and sacrifice in making the company all that it has become. You start this adventure completely sold out, fired up with a deep desire to be the best in the business in every aspect. Over time you know that you have become lazy, uninterested, disconnected, and uncommitted to the "Company's Mission and Profitability". The CEO of the company asks to meet with you to discuss with you your progress and productivity for the company. "What does he specifically want to talk about? What am I doing wrong? I've got to be honest; am I really doing all that I should, all that I could, all that I agreed to do? Can they tell I really love what I have been asked to do? Does the CEO know I appreciate what he has done by giving me this opportunity? If I can fix whatever went wrong, what do I need to do differently? I realize I need to be more and do more not out of obligation but from my desire to be ALL that the CEO really saw in me from the beginning. Now, where do I begin and how do I start to regain what the CEO knows I have to offer? " Now consider this, you were offered a free gift of salvation from the God of the Universe. This gift came in the form of His one and only Son, Jesus Christ! It came at the expense of the excruciating pain and brutal death on the cross and the shed blood of God in human form for your sin - those that you committed today, the ones everybody knows about, and yes, those private ones too. It doesn't end there. He's not dead - He conquered death for you too in His victorious resurrection; He lives today! This gift offers you, forgiveness, grace, and mercy, the opportunity to escape death and hell for eternity, but even more astounding, an eternal life on streets of gold with the audience of the One who made it all possible; Jesus! To receive this offer, you must accept the gift of God, believe in His son (the gift), Jesus, and commit your life to Him! If you were anything like me when you accepted the gift, you were ready to start your adventure in Christ, sold out and fired up! Sound familiar? Then something happened. Maybe it was time, maybe effort, maybe age, girls, sports, friends, hunting, fishing-you fill in the blank. You lost your spark, your interest in being all you could be for Christ. Now you may have a wife, children, a job, a mortgage, and/or a bucket full of other worries and concerns that have continued to pull your focus further away from HIM! You know what it means to be "sold out" to Jesus, but there is too much stuff in the way. Well, today the CEO of heaven, the one whom you admire and love for His sacrifice, for making you all that you have become, wants to pull you aside and ask you to consider where you are in your progress and productivity for the Kingdom of God; we'll call it Kingdom work! He wants you to take an honest look- first at some real men, not unlike you and me, to prove it really is humanly possible. Then you'll be asked to take an honest look at where you are now and where you think you need to be. Finally, we'll let Christ show us how to travel the distance between where we are and where He wants us to be! Together, we will begin to find our way back to being more Christ-like for Kingdom Work!

One Kingdom Under God Tony Evans
2014-07-15 If you are a follower of Jesus Christ, you belong to a kingdom. You belong to a King. His name is Jesus. Understanding what a kingdom is and how it runs is essential to living a victorious Christian life. Sadly, many believers are still operating under the rule and authority of the kingdom of this world, which Satan dominates. In One Kingdom Under God, Dr. Tony Evans boldly declares the kingdom agenda as he explains the four basic covenantal spheres through which God's kingdom operates: personal, familial, church, and societal. He shows that from beginning to end, the Bible—God's rulebook for life—is focused on one thing: God's glory through advancing His kingdom. It reveals the absolute standard to which all other standards must bow. It's time for us to reclaim our allegiance under the rule and reign of God's dominion by aligning our lives with His Word and His ways. * This book is a part of the Life Under God series, a 5-book series adapted from the 5 sections found in The Kingdom Agenda, the legacy work of Dr. Tony Evans.

Deciding Terry Walling 2018-03-05 Deciding is a different kind of book. Most books seek to introduce new concepts, ideas and paradigms, hoping to demonstrate their relevance and convince you of their validity. Deciding was written for the convinced. Deciding is for those in the mid-stage of life who know about the frustration of living in the in-between. Their sense is that God is at work doing something new, but they have little or no insight into what that might be, or what may lie ahead. This paralyzing moment is called the Deciding Transition, and it occurs for all Christ-followers somewhere in the early 40s to late 50s. The Deciding Transition seeks to initiate new clarity to a Christ-follower's unique, Kingdom contribution. Contribution seeks to define the influence and role we each play in the lives of those we touch and in the places we serve. God does some of His greatest shaping work during times of transition. Transitions serve to catalyze new direction, clarify values, provide insight for decision-making, and bring closure to the past. Though most of us want out of a time of transition, God wants in. The question is not whether we will enter in to times of transition, but rather will we be patiently present, getting out all that God has for us during that time.

He wants His people to live a faith filled life that draws people to Him. This book was directly inspired by the Spirit of God and it will challenge your core beliefs on how you engage in Kingdom Leadership.
