Faith Alone---The Doctrine of Justification

Thomas R. Schreiner 2015-09-15 Renowned biblical scholar Thomas Schreiner looks at the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine of justification and offers an updated defense of this pillar of Reformed theology. Reinvigorating one of the five great declarations of the Reformation—sola fide—Schreiner: Summarizes the history of the doctrine, looking at the early church and the writings of several of the Reformers. Walks readers through an examination of the key biblical texts in the Old and New Testament that support the Reformed understanding of justification. Discusses whether justification is transformative or forensic and introduces readers to some of the contemporary challenges to the Reformation teaching of sola fide, with particular attention to the new perspective on Paul. Five hundred years after the Reformation, the doctrine of justification by faith alone still needs to be understood and proclaimed. In Faith Alone you will learn how the rallying cry of “sola fide” is rooted in the Scriptures and how to understand this doctrine in a fresh way. —THE FIVE SOLAS— Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth-century Protestant Reformation were five declarations, often referred to as the "solos." These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about, and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith: that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures, acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption, recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone, and seek to do all things for God's glory. The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements, but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them, leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches.

Trophies of Grace: Life Lessons from Romans 4 and 5 Bj Loyd 2018-08-29 The great Apostle Paul says in Ephesians 2:7 that one of the reasons for our salvation is "[t]hat in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. He then follows that by saying in verse 8 that salvation is the end result grace. Then he explains that God's grace is released by faith. "For by grace are ye saved through faith...", he explains. Much is said about the wonderful grace of God. The big question lies in how we are to get that grace flowing in our direction. The author uses Romans 4 and 5 to show how the Grace of God is made available to everyone. There is only one way - faith. Even the great Abraham had to come by faith. It is the way all must come if they are to share in the wonderful grace of God.

The Exceeding Riches of His Grace Byran C. Russell 2016-08-01 The entrance of sin into the Universe had changed the course of events and affected God's relationship with His creatures; but Grace has reset and reestablished that relationship. There could never have been a greater consequence of sin than the threefold consequence of death. Yet, Grace triumphs over death and brings immortality to life The Epistles herein considered have dealt exhaustively with Grace: its source, application, and effects. However, most of their contents have dealt with the application of Grace to emphasize that the blessings of Grace extend beyond time to eternity. Though one cannot change one's own nature, one can change one's destiny by the opportunity offered by Grace. Grasp the opportunity with both hands while there is time.

The Riches of Grace! Dave Hutchinson 2009-09 What is life all about? Why am I here? Who do I see when I look in the mirror? It is not a mystery who you are in Christ and what your future holds. God has great blessings for us. God has declared His plan for the redeemed and it is excitingly good news! These blessings are free to the believer, having been paid for by Christ! This understanding makes me desire to please and serve Him more, and rest in the knowledge that I am truly a precious and holy son of God.
